

UNSTOPPABLE FAITH

NOVEMBER 2021

2022

BRING ON

As Christmas begins to approach, I am reminded how grateful I am that Jesus came to the earth to be the champion for all mankind. He came to love, to heal, to save, and ultimately to die for our sins. There's no greater love than that!

Because you have been saved by Jesus, the same Spirit of the Lord that lives in Him, now lives in you! It is now up to God's people to continue His mission to be a champion for the brokenhearted.

Starting in 2022, Life Without Limbs is launching a new initiative to be more strategic in this mission. Each month we will be highlighting a different area of brokenness and sharing a Gospel message directly to those who are experiencing that pain, inviting them to give their life to Jesus, and connecting them with resources or testimonies of people who have come through similar trials with the help of Jesus.

We have been blessed with a multi-camera talk show studio, along with the ability to translate our content into 36 languages, both dubbed and subtitled. Life Without Limbs can now reach millions more people with the Good News of Jesus Christ in a way that speaks directly to their situation, in a language they can understand. What a miracle!

You don't want to miss our Champions for the Brokenhearted broadcast, available now for a limited time at LifeWithoutLimbs.org/Champions. This broadcast will contain many moments from our recent Champions gala, including a significant message from me. Be a champion in your own circle of influence by sharing the broadcast with your friends, family, and even your church.

Thank you for your prayers for Life Without Limbs. I am excited to partner with you in this new season of ministry. Together we are champions for the brokenhearted!

Love,

Nick
